Policeman Beats Up Merchant King Albert Occupies Brussels

HARRY MARCUS SET UPON BY PATROLMAN MAY AND BRUTALLY MANHANDLED BY THAT OFFICER

Harry Marcus, manager and principal owner of The Big Store, one of the largest business houses on the East Shores of San Francisco Bay was brutally beaten last night shortly after 8 o'clock by a policeman by the name of William B. May. The incident was brought about, it is alleged by the fact that Marcus halted out three boys from jail who were arrested by May Wednesday night on what Marcus claimed was a trumped up charge of disturbing the peace.

It appears that on Wednesday evening Marcus remained in his store until a late hour, cleaning up after his sale. Along with him was a colored window cleaner by the name of "Rastus", who was washing the windows at the front of the store. Marcus left Rastus in charge while he went to the postoffice to mail some letters and when he returned the colored man, along with four young men, Steve Johnson, Jesse Campbell, William Sargeant and Arthur Roberts were being berated by the policeman, May, who was calling them vile names. Manager Marcus enquired about the trouble and was met with curses and vile, insulting epithets.

May called Marcus a German and acted like a man bereft of his senses from drink or other causes. Finally May took the four boys in custody, but before taking them to the lockup one of them, Steve Johnson broke away and made good his escape. However, before he made his escape he was beaten over the head by May with his club. The other boys were taken to jail and locked up. Marcus halted out the boys, Campbell, Sargeant and Roberts and thereby gained the sympathy of the arresting officer and the police department.

Last night Marcus was followed up the street by Officer May and attacked and beaten as above stated. His glasses were broken by the thug and his lip badly cut. "Jitney" Weber, the taxi man came to his rescue and pulled Officer May off, otherwise the merchant might have been killed by the brutal policeman. May was arrested last night and this morning appeared before Judge Roth and pled guilty to a charge of assault. Sentence will be passed on him later in the week by the court.

The people of Richmond are deeply stirred up and justly indignant over this latest manifestation of the element of which the police department of this city is composed. This is not the first instance when helpless citizens have been maltreated by policemen and it will not be the last unless the people and city council make a cleanup of the department from the head to the tail.

This evening President Burdick of the Merchants association will call the merchants of the city together to demand of the city council that the police department be purified by the dismissal of the chief of police and the entire force and a new department organized. The Ministerial association of the city, composed of all the clergymen, will make a similar demand. The people of all walks of life are indignant over the outrage and everybody is resolved that the present incident is sufficient to justify action at this time.

It is related by eye-witnesses that the boys, Johnson, Campbell, Sargeant and Roberts who were the innocent cause of all the trouble were not doing anything out of the way or unlawful when attacked by Officer May, but were simply talking on the street in front of The Big Store. All agree that May's actions in his attack on the boys and Marcus were uncalculated for and without provocation.

EX-KAISER TO QUIT HOLLAND FOR PALACE IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 22.—All the members of the Hohenzollern dynasty will leave Germany in the near future, according to a Frankfurt dispatch to the Rotterdam Courant. Their destination, it adds, is not yet known.

So far as is known the only members of the Hohenzollern dynasty who already have left Germany are William Hohenzollern, the former emperor, and his eldest son, Frederick William, the former crown prince. Both are in Holland. There have been conflicting reports regarding the former German emperor, who has been in poor health for some time, but the probabilities point to her not having left German territory.

The ex-emperor has five other sons. His one daughter, Victoria Louise, married the Duke of Brunswick in 1913. A recent dispatch reported the abdication of the duke. The former emperor's only brother, Prince Henry of Prussia, is not known to have quit Germany so far. There are several male children among the former ruler's grandchildren.

EX-KAISER HAS "FLU"

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Germany's former ruler, Wilhelm Hohenzollern has been taken seriously ill with influenza, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express today. Another Amsterdam report says the ex-emperor's suite, including Admiral Platen, has returned to Germany.

MINISTERS WILL BE PRESENT AT MEETING.

Ministers of the royal will be at the meeting of the first merchants this evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Biltmore building. They had a meeting this afternoon at the Christian church study, but decided to defer action in regard to the cleaning up of the police department of the city until they were more fully advised at the hands of the business men of the city.

THE UNITED WAR COMMITTEE HAS FINISHED WORK OF BIG DRIVE

Yesterday evening the local United War Works committee wound up the campaign and tabulated the returns. Richmond's quota was $23,000 and she exceeded that sum by $3318.47, which is a mighty good showing for the community and indicates that even if the war is over we are going to see that the boys of General Pershing's expeditionary forces are provided with every comfort possible to give them until they are returned to us. Here are those who contributed to make up the large sum which Richmond sent to the boys in France:

AFTER FOUR YEARS IN HANDS OF GERMANS, HEAD OF BENIGIAN GOVERNMENT ARRIVES IN CAPITAL

PARIS, Nov. 22.—King Albert of Belgium, Queen Elisabeth, Prince Leopold, Prince Charles and Princess Marie Jose entered Brussels this morning amidst a mighty ovation from the civilian population and the Belgian troops.

The royal party made an impressive entry and were triumphantly welcomed. King Albert rode at the head of a Belgian division of the allied army.

Belgian soldiers that entered Brussels during the morning were literally covered with flags and flowers. It was one of the most wonderful sights in the history of the country. MEMORIAL STATEMENT. Cardinal Mercier, famous Belgian prelate, who defied the German military authorities, gave out a remarkable interview upon the deliverance of his country. The cardinal radiated happiness. He said that he had never lost hope, although at times his heart was much troubled. The cardinal, after recalling his arrest in 1914, when he was not allowed to leave his home for two days, inquired after Cardinal Gibbons, whom he called "a grand old man and a noble figure."

The prelate was deeply shocked to learn of the death of Cardinal Farley in New York. It was the first time he had heard of it.

THE CONQUEROR CONQUERED.

In 1871 when General Whimfren went to Prussian headquarters under the stress of hopeless defeat, he pleaded for three hours with Von Moltke for some modification of the conditions for surrender which had been fixed at Sedan. To quote Alfred Rambaud on this conference at the Chateau de Bellevue, near Donchery:

"This cold and inflexible calculator, who had reduced war to mathematical formulae, was incapable of generosity as of anger. He had decided that the entire army, with arms and baggage should be prisoners. Bismarck took part in the conference. He made one remark, that has historical importance. 'Prussia will act as terms of peace not only an indemnity of four billion francs, but Alsace and Lorraine. We must have a good advanced strategic line.'

"Demand only money," then replied Whimfren. "You will be sure of peace with us for an indefinite period. If you take from us Alsace and Lorraine we will only have truce for a time; in France from old men down to children, all will learn the use of arms, and millions of soldiers will one day demand of you what you take from us."

How the tables were turned when at General Foch's headquarters, the armistice, which provided for occupation of Alsace-Lorraine by France and her allies, and the forerunner of a peace which will give those provinces back to France, was signed by the German delegates, who could not get their signatures on that paper quick enough. Whimfren's prediction had come true to the letter. And not only must Alsace-Lorraine be restored but adequate compensation must be made to France and Belgium for the immeasurable damage wrought in these countries by the ruthless Hun. The day of "no annexations and no indemnities" is far behind.

France has suffered more than any of her allies save Belgium but the returned Alsace-Lorraine makes the war worth while to that nation which has removed forever the menace that has towered on her eastern borders since 1871.

The resignation of Policeman May after beating up one of the most prominent and highly respected citizens of the community without the least provocation should not be a cause of surprise. It is a part of the city's complicity in that act. The city council should make a clean sweep of its police department from the chief to the humblest patrolman. In any other community but Richmond this would have been done several years ago. How much longer are Richmond people—citizens and taxpayers—going to permit such outrageous conduct on the part of the police force?

Richmond's police department should be renovated and cleansed. It has needed something of the kind for the past four or five years, but some influence which it has been impossible to discover and define has kept Chief of Police Walker in his position. Until the people of Richmond take the matter in their own hands, we will have the same thing clearest employed on the police force of the city as we have today and have had for a long time. There have been numerous instances of their disgraceful conduct, one of the most flagrant being the frame-up in the Richmond police department to send Rev. P. E. Peterson to the penitentiary on a trumped up charge. There have been numerous others, but that one instance alone should have been sufficient in any other civilized community to reduce Walker's entire administration to civil life.

The difficulty with the Huns at this time is that they are decidedly poor losers. They staked their all on gaining control of all the people and countries in the world and lost. This is the whole matter in a nutshell. They are not entitled to any consideration from the allies and the latter should keep this view of the situation in mind when they prepare the terms of peace for the Germans to sign. See that they organize a civilized government of such a nature that it will keep them from bothering the rest of humanity and let it go at that.

The German people are just now bitterly regretting the war and severely blame their ruler for not completely exterminating all the women and children of the allied nations, so the latter would have had to give up first.

One of the chief difficulties in the labor situation today seems to be there are too many fellows who know too much to work with their hands and not enough to work with their brains.

Profound disgust at the stupidity of election results is expressed by many voters who did not take the trouble to go to the polls.

The only people who have contributed nothing to the securing of a grand and glorious peace are the pacifists.

MARY PICKFORD IS STARRING AT THE RICHMOND

Mary Pickford is surrounded by an exceptionally capable cast in "How Could You Jean?" her new Artcraft production which is classed as a comedy drama with the accent on the comedy. Spottiswoode Aitken, who played in many early Griffith productions, including "The Birth of a Nation," in which he was Dr. Cameron, and Herbert Standing, who has appeared in dozens of Paramount and Artcraft photoplays, have excellent parts and Casson Ferguson plays the leading juvenile role.

Fanny Midgley, for a long time a beloved "mother" at the Ince studios; Larry Peyton, the cowardly "Gusard" of "Joan the Woman," and Zazu Pitts, the "Becky" of "The Little Princess," are also in the list of supporting players. Then there is a crowd of kids who will win the hearts of all, including Wesley Barry, the scrapping kid of "Amarilly of Clothesline Alley." Miss Pickford's new picture, "How Could You Jean?" will be presented at the Richmond Theater today and tomorrow, and it seems certain that the capacity of the theater will be taxed by "Our Mary's" admirers.

REV. BASSETT TO DELIVER GREAT PYRAMID TALK

Carl Bassett, pastor of the Baptist church will repeat the lecture on the Great Pyramid of Egypt which he gave two years ago. The lecture will be given next Sunday night at the church at 7:30 by special request of the church. Mr. Bassett has studied the subject for several years and was several months in preparing the lecture.

He is convinced, and proves from facts and symbols that the Great Pyramid has a sacred message for the world.

The sermon will be illustrated by two large charts.

The public is cordially invited to hear this fascinating story of the Pyramid next Sunday night at the Baptist church.

CARPENTERS LAID OFF.

The Standard Oil company laid off a large number of carpenters yesterday evening on account of a slackening of work. This move is understood to be in part on account of the rains and a part to the fact that a good deal of building construction for war work has been cancelled by the government.

"BEST INVESTMENT I HAVE EVER MADE"

CONTRACTOR WOULDN'T TAKE FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR GOOD TANLAC DID HIM.

"I just want to say right now that I wouldn't take five hundred dollars for the good that first bottle of Tanlac did me, for I feel like it have given me a new lease on life," said C. E. Nelson, a contracting carpenter living at 7728 63rd Ave., Southeast, Portland, Ore., recently.

"Following a serious accident four months ago," he continued, "which laid me up for eight or nine weeks, I lost my appetite, and my stomach got all out of order. What little I did manage to eat would sour from gas, which would cramp and pain me until I could hardly stand it. Then my kidneys went back on me, and my back hurt so bad I couldn't find a comfortable position. They said I had rheumatism or 'lumbago,' then my right leg below the knee, got to hurting me, and at times I couldn't stand on my feet or get up when down I was constituted all the time and I suffered a great deal with headache. Nobody knows how I really did suffer because I just can't describe it and as nothing seemed to do me any good I had become discouraged about my condition.

"I finally sent down and got a bottle of Tanlac, as I had read so much about it, and it was about the best investment I ever made. My appetite came bounding back after my first few doses, and by the time my second bottle was gone, my stomach trouble was almost gone, too. I am now eating any and everything I want and it don't hurt me the least bit, and my kidneys and back are greatly improved. At the time I started on Tanlac I had to use crutches in order to get about, but I don't need them now at all, and I have thrown them aside. I have gained several pounds in weight, and can just feel myself getting stronger every day. I have gone back to work already, and I never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for Tanlac."

"Tanlac is sold in Richmond by C. B. LaMoine, in Antioch by H. J. Shuman, in Crockett by J. Civitelli, in Pittsburg by Regal Pharmacy, in Antioch by Shuman Drug Store, and in Pinole by E. K. & H. Dunlap."

Correct Lubrication for the Valve-in-Head Type Motor

The Valve-in-head-type engine illustrated here, like all internal combustion engines, requires an oil that holds its lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust. Zerolene fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

ZEROLENE
The Standard Oil for Motor Cars

It Keeps the Engine Young!

Experts agree in recommending ZEROLENE because it keeps the engine young, full-powered, smooth-running, and economical in fuel and oil consumption.

The majority of motorists are now using ZEROLENE, because they have learned by experience that there is no better oil to be had.

Correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, ZEROLENE gives perfect lubrication with less wear and less carbon deposit. Less wear because ZEROLENE keeps its lubricating body at cylinder heat. Less carbon because, being made from asphalt-base crude, it burns clean and goes out with exhaust.

ZEROLENE is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines. It is the correct oil for your automobile. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

DELAP MEETS FLU GERMS IN FAR OFF FRANCE

From a letter received by his aunt, Mrs. Smith, in this city a couple of days ago from Lieut. Truman H. Delap, with Pershing's expeditionary forces in France, that gentleman states that after the St. Mihiel drive in which he participated and before that in the battle of Soissons, he was sent back to an officers' training camp and since had been engaged in training new men for officers.

At the time of writing the letter he was in a base hospital recovering from an attack of the influenza. He said he was getting along fine and sent his best wishes to his old friends in this city. In another part of his letter he tells of meeting his younger brother in another portion of France.
